FREE CHANT "TE DEUM."—The following unasked-for testimonial has been received, and was published in a letter in the Musical Standard of June 17:—"A few weeks ago I had the honour to deliver a lecture on Church Music in this village, and at two others a few miles remote. The lecture was illustrated by our own choir, and I then took the opportunity of introducing the Te Deum, as it appeared in the Musical Standard. The choir sang it with due effect, and I gave it as my opinion that the adaptation of this beautiful canticle—which has been subjected so long to such inconsistent treatment, especially in our village churches,—to a musical treatment so simple, sound, yet sublime, was the greatest success at present attained. I further recommended it to the use of every parish choir in our neighbourhood; the result of which was that nearly all the clergy present determined to adopt it under my direction. It is likely, I think, to become very popular and successful in this district.—W. ELDRIDGE HARRIS, Choirmaster to the Chew Decanal Choral Association."
